Everything Cars in Victoria BC, Vancouver Island and The Pacific Northwest.

Vancouver Island Motor Gathering is happening Sunday August 27th

This Edition

It's the middle of August already with the car show season is in its last few weeks, but there is still a lot happening to wind up the year. Let's hope the great weather we have been having continues for the the remainder of the show season.

This week Tony takes us on a test drive of the Ferrari 812 Superfast, which I'm sure was no fun at all.

Please note that the next newsletter won't be published until late September, so I have included an extended show schedule in this edition. In the meantime, I hope you will be out there enjoying an extended show schedule in this edition. In the meantime, I hope you will be out there enjoying your rides and making the best of the great driving weather.

Test Drive: 2017 Ferrari 812 Superfast

Ferrari's lineup of models has always been quite small with every variant inevitably highly desirable, but there's always been one car that gained a little prominence over the rest. Right now this has to be the awesome 812 Superfast with its impressive performance, superb styling and (surprisingly) spacious interior. Read more...
